The following resource provides definitions, suggestions, and external resources for your Student Group.

Definition of Equity

“Equity is about fairness: in access – to education, to employment – and in opportunity to succeed in these domains. As a guiding principle of this policy, equity reflects an understanding that the University of Alberta is an increasingly diverse community and that it will respect and value the differences of its members” (University of Alberta: Discrimination, Harassment, and Duty to Accommodate Policy).

Equity work seeks to mitigate or remove barriers that contribute to inequity. A program, event, or project that has equity as a grounding principle might include the following:

- Seek to remove barriers to some form of student access
- Seek to educate about the existence of barriers to access
- Seek to promote or employ practices and/or processes the promote equity
Definition of Discrimination

Discrimination refers to “a distinction, whether or not intentional, based on a characteristic or perceived characteristic referenced in the protected grounds that has the effect of imposing on an individual or groups of individuals burdens, obligations, or disadvantages that are not imposed on others, or of withholding or limiting access to opportunities, benefits and advantages available to other individuals in society” (University of Alberta: Discrimination, Harassment, and Duty to Accommodate policy).

At the University of Alberta, discrimination is prohibited on the following protected grounds:

- Race
- Colour
- Ancestry
- Place of origin
- Religious beliefs
- Gender, gender identity, and gender expression
- Physical disability
- Mental disability
- Marital status
- Source of income
- Sexual orientation
- Age
- Political beliefs

Equity and anti-discrimination work has the effect, over time, of improving inclusivity and diversity.

Anti-discrimination work may include:

- educating about historical and current disadvantages experienced by virtue of one of the above
- expanding programs and activities by removing barriers to access based on one or more of these protected grounds
- evaluating programs and activities for barriers to access

Practices or actions that can be taken to create an inclusive environment:

- Providing all gendered washrooms options
- Adapting venues and activities for physical accessibility
