9. DISCUSSION PERIOD:

   a) Communications

      Tighe: The sticky notes are in and they look wicked. Next week everyday from 11:00-2:00 pm the booth will be set up. I will be passing a sign up sheet around at Council tonight for volunteers. We can also have people fill out the sticky notes and put them on the Wall of Gold. We are doing this way later than I had hoped, hopefully next year they can do this sooner.

   b) Sex Fest

      Csorba: This is for the week after next. A group asked about getting SubStage for free. They are wanting to use it to educate people about sex.

      Dumouchel: What are they wanting to do on SubStage?

      Csorba: A speech.

      Cheema: There are different rates for both internal and external renters.

      Yamagishi: I know that it costs two hundred for tech and there is a four hour minimum.

      Cheema: There have been a fair number of groups asking for this and we need to be selective in these cases. If we accept one we need to be ready to accept them all.

      Dumouchel: We need to be consistent. I think we should say no. What do we get out of it?

      Csorba: I will get more information.

      Yamagishi: They can afford it.

      Csorba: I think they are trying to be economical. I think we should make the student rate cheaper and then say no.

   c) Budget Priorities

      Cheema: This document includes a list of ideas that have been brought up over the course of the year.

      Tighe: Can you bring this back to the next Executive meeting so we can review it.

      Dumouchel: Typically we do not add a lot of new stuff to this list.

      Cheema: This list includes some political issues as well.
Csorba: You can take off the Undergrad Research stuff.

The Executive Committee discussed the Budget Principles.
