g. CCSA

SHARMA: what is going on with Leslie Church and former executives being drawn into this issue? We make the decision and if the incoming feel that they want to change it, they can.
ROSS provided an update regarding his involvement as well as an explanation of the email trail. Certain that the incoming will make the wrong choice and there is nothing to discuss.
HUDEMA: this is an unwise expense and use of dollars. There was no attempt to get “balanced “ view last year.
BRECHTEL: it is positive to get past executive input. There is nothing lost in doing so.
SMITH: Have no issue with consulting with past executive, unsure of why the email was sent out without current executive knowledge.
B.SMITH: the entire process has been quite awful. I didn’t carefully pick whom to send the email to, just sent it out to folks that I had addresses for. Once I had received the information I would have brought that forward, was just seeking input. The former executive reacted to the negativity in Steve and Kail’s emails.
C. SAMUEL: This is turning into an outgoing vs. incoming issue. It is important to draw on other people’s input.
SHARMA: disagree with sending out emails without knowledge of executive.
6. Old Business
7. New Business
a. Combining of Positions

HUDEMA/SMITH MOVED THAT the Executive Committee eliminate the Academic Affairs Coordinator and Community Relations Coordinator and replace these positions with the Academic and Community Relations Coordinator.

HUDEMA: this needs to be done, there will be cost saving and more effectiveness. SMITH: would be valuable to do but this is the worst time to do it. BRECHTEL: disagree with doing this. Would be creating a less desirable position that would be a challenge for a student to fill. SHARMA: strongly against this and ask that this motion be withdrawn. The org. review process should be used to review all coordinator positions.

SAMUEL: How much will be save and how would the selection process work?

HUDEMA: tried to get the executive e to discuss this earlier, all positions were well known. B. SMITH: what is the rush; this can be completed in the org review process.

SMITH/ROSS Moved To Postpone Indefinitely.

VOTE ON MOTION 3/SHARMA, BRECHTEL/0 CARRIED

HUDEMA/ROSS MOVED THAT the Executive Committee approve the proposed policy 14.11.

HUDEMA introduced this policy and provided background regarding various aspects of it.

B. SMITH: has this been circulated to other staff members to see if there is any impact on their areas and would it be appropriate to insert “wherever practical and financially feasible” where appropriate?

SMITH: Do not feel that insertion is necessary.
