2004-05/7 QUESTION PERIOD

2004-05/7a KNISELY - To the Chair of the Audit Committee: On May 31, the Royal Bank of Canada experienced and shortly thereafter reported a computer error resulting in delayed transactions. Will the Audit Committee conduct a reconciliation of our bank accounts to ensure that all transactions were properly cleared during the months of May and June?
2004-05/7b  KNISELY - To the Undergraduate Board of Governors Representative or the President (as a member of the Board): The Public Post-Secondary Institutions' Tuition Fees Regulation (under the PSL Act) requires a significant amount of cooperation and consultation between Students' Council and the Board of Governors concerning tuition fee increases and the budget process relative to the determination of tuition fees. Is this a new provision under the PSL Act that was different from the Universities Act, and what are the current mechanisms in place to facilitate this requirement?

2004-05/7c  KNISELY - To the Speaker or the Chair of the Internal Review Board: Our bylaws are still riddled with references to the Financial Affairs Board, which no longer exists. My understanding is that all references to FAB would be changed to Budget Committee, and that committee would adopt all powers and responsibilities that FAB had previously. Is this the case and the editorial changes haven't been made by IRB, or is there a different committee to be struck to replace FAB?

AND WHEREAS the fulfillment of the mandate above requires financial and political independence from the University of Alberta and the Government of Alberta;

AND WHEREAS the circumstances giving rise to the comments of the President of the University of Alberta published by the Edmonton Journal in May 2004 suggest that the Government of Alberta is willing to exert inappropriate influence over the University of Alberta to further the political goals and preserve the public reputations of members of the Executive Council of Alberta;

UPCOMING COUNCIL MEETINGS

July 13, 2004
July 27, 2004

INFORMATION ITEMS
2004-05/14a: Votes and Proceedings from the June 15, 2004 meeting of Students’ Council. Please see document SC 04-05.09
Mr. Speaker:

I wish to raise a point of privilege to you and through you, to Council, concerning the June 15, 2004 meeting of Council during which I believe that my privileges as a member of Council were unjustly infringed.

To briefly outline the facts, Council was debating the motion of the President and the Vice President (Student Life) concerning the authorization of the governing body of an organization to register as a third party pursuant to section 353(5) of the Canada Elections Act. I had raised several concerns about the ability of the Executive Committee to ascertain legal obligations and liabilities before embarking on new businesses and activities, which was followed up by Councillor Lewis with a motion to have the question. This was seconded and subsequently passed.

The two grounds for my point of privilege are procedural and substantive. The procedural concern is that the Standing Orders (Order 33 in the Standing Orders at the time, Order 42 in the present version) allow the Speaker to refuse a motion of the previous question on the grounds that, in the Speaker’s opinion, the motion has not been sufficiently debated.

Whether or not the issue was raised at the time, I do not believe the Speaker could reasonably have been satisfied that debate had been sufficient for Council to make an informed decision about becoming a registered third party under the Canada Elections Act. On my initial inspection of the Act, I was concerned about the number of obligations that the Students' Union would be undertaking by registering as a third-party. Now, upon closer review of the legislation, I believe that our obligations are extensive and remain unaddressed.

It is my opinion that Council is not presently aware of many of the serious obligations that we resolved to undertake as a direct result of the moving for the previous question before my raised concerns were answered. I believe the fault lies first in the mover of the motion and the second, then to the Speaker in neglecting to intervene, and finally to the members of Council who agreed to have the question.

I condemn the negligence and utter disregard demonstrated by the members of Council above for leaving issues unresolved that may undermine the credibility, reputation, and the financial integrity of the Students' Union of the University of Alberta.

Yours sincerely,

Adam Knisely
Councillor for the Faculty of Arts
Good evening Council,

Here are the things that have been keeping me busy over the past few weeks:

1. Federal Election Campaign: We held a forum on June 22\textsuperscript{nd} on SUBstage. This forum went extremely well and the seating area around the stage was packed. We had a good mix of students and members of the community and a lot of really good questions were asked. Thank you to everyone that came out and promoted the forum to others.

2. GSA: Alexis Pepin has been working on a proposal for the GSA to retain their current office space as social space when they move into their new space in the Killiam Centre. Alexis, Bill Connor and I will be meeting to discuss an agreement that will resolve our issues with our current lease for the Powerplant and Dewey’s. This agreement is such that I will be supporting Alexis in her pursuit of social space and in return, she will indemnify the Students’ Union of all of our obligations to the GSA in regards to operating Dewey’s. This issue should be resolved very shortly, which will allow us to sign a new lease and continue with the bar-revitalization plan. I am extremely happy about this.

3. Meal Card: Bill Smith and I met with David Bruch and Lorraine Eriksson of Ancillary Services and Michael Beaver of ARAMARK. We discussed the future of the one card and expanding the meal card to all Students’ Union owned and operated businesses. This meeting went really well and everyone involved is confident that this will be in place for September 1\textsuperscript{st}. Bill and I are waiting for an offer from ARAMARK and assuming we can come to an agreement, we will start the necessary changes required to implement this.

4. Celebration: I have spent a considerable amount of time working on this since last meeting. The design department is working on a design for the posters/sponsorship package. The marketing department is solidifying the ad plan. Geoff Grimble is working on finishing up a sponsorship package. I asked Graham Neil from CFRN to host the event and he was happy to do it. This is really great news because Graham is a prominent member of the media community and having him as a host virtually guarantees that we will be able to get media out to this event, not to mention he is hilarious. I have also been adjusting the proposal that I brought to council so I can start approaching stakeholder groups on Campus. I have a meeting scheduled with Alexis about this for tomorrow, and I hope to meet with the others soon.

5. Presidential Search Committee: The PSC met again on June 22\textsuperscript{nd}. We finalized a position description and started to discuss some specific candidates. Thank you to Roman for submitting some ideas for what we should be looking for in a new president. If you would like to follow the search process, go to www.ualberta.ca/governors and follow the link the Presidential Search. Or email me at president@su.ualberta.ca, and I will try to answer your questions. However, this is an extremely confidential committee and I will not be able to give you any information on specific candidates, so please don’t ask.

6. Board of Governors: I attended the BoG meeting on June 18\(^{th}\). This was a really long meeting with a full agenda. Nothing extremely contentious to report. We discussed the investment committee report, the year end report of the University, the upcoming fundraising campaign for the University, and got an update on the HRIF construction. Talk to Roman or I if you have any questions.

7. Other meetings/events that I have attended: Alberta Learning Orientation in Calgary on June 25\(^{th}\). One day Exec retreat at Bill’s house on June 28\(^{th}\).
Federal Election
Edmonton-Strathcona candidates’ forum on the 22nd went extremely well. We had an amazing turnout from not just the student body, but also the community as a whole. The event got positive coverage in the media – both on and off campus. Thank you to Ariana Barer for organizing the event, and to Sam Power and Chris Samuel for their involvement during the event.
Remember to vote on the 28th. If you haven’t decided yet, both CFS and CASA have reports cards posted on-line grading the parties’ educational platforms. CFS grades the traditional three parties, while CASA also includes the Bloc Quebecois and the Green Party. Check them out here:
CASA - http://www.thinkeducation.ca/reportcard.asp

CAUS
Duncan and I met with our counterparts from ACTISEC (Brett Bergie and Paul Zits). There’s consensus among the four of us with regards to a joint CAUS/ACTISEC campaign for the provincial election, from here we need approval from our respective memberships, then to work out the details of a steering committee for the project, and a Memorandum of Understanding.
We also met with CAFA (Confederation of Alberta Faculty Associations) and ACIFA (Alberta College-Institute Faculty Association) to discuss participating in their campaign. Our Annual General Meeting occurs on the 25th in Calgary, following our Alberta Learning Orientation Session and Luncheon with the Minister of Learning.

External Affairs Board
Met to brainstorm ideas for a Provincial Election campaign; this is becoming a time-sensitive issue as all signs point to a November election.

Meetings
Allison Lennie (ECOS Director) and I met with Mark Huberman, who is developing a TDM (Transportation Demand Management) Plan for the U of A. We discussed issues of sustainability, transit usage, and how a Universal Bus Pass program would fit into a TDM.
Met with Chris McLeod (organizer of the Edmonton 2004) celebrations for further discussions about SU involvement; later met with Doug Blackie and Andy Grabia from External Relations at the U of A to see how we could co-operate with them on the project.

Euro Cup 2004 – Go England!

Upcoming

- June 28th. Election Day!
- June 29th – Meetings with Kevin Taft, Leader of the Opposition, then with the New Democratic Caucus (Raj Pannu and Brian Mason).
- July 7th – Duncan Wojtaszek (CAUS Executive Director)’s wedding
- July 8th – Lunch with Chancellor Eric Newell.

APIRG: Had a nice meeting where we discussed and plotted out a strategic plan for the organization. APIRG has long realized that it is not well known throughout campus and has put these as goals for this year. They plan to focus this year on outreach, promotion, and doing more public events. One event that has been in their radar is a form of PIRG orientation, where people would be able to be introduced to the PIRG organizations and have a place to meet other similarly interested people.

Bar Revitalization: I would like to thank council for making a prudent business decision regarding the capital expenses for the bars. I hope that the discussion in the last council meeting helped to bring you up to date on what is entailed within this process and the complexity of it. Throughout the next 2 months, you will see numerous changes to our bars and we all need to work together in order to make this change a successful one. I also sent out a quick survey via email to all of you, which is due tomorrow. Please do fill it out and send it back. especially with testimonials and comments, as I would like to get a more in-depth personal feel for what each person has experienced and what they would like to see. Also if anyone knows anybody that is a somewhat experienced DJ who is looking for some contract jobs, I urge you to please apply with a 20 minute demo CD, resume, and cover letter to 2-900 SUB.

Budget Committee: Again thanks to all the committee members who have remained dedicated to this entire process as both myself and several committee members are learning all the details. I’m glad to announce that we are done budget defenses!! And will now be moving into the decisions. Hopefully, all members of the committee now have a “better than average” understanding of the financial structure of the SU as well as the complexity involved within so that they can make educated reasonable prudent decisions.

FACRA: CJSR held their Annual General Meeting where budgets were looked at, reports were given, members were briefed on current happenings, and elections to the board were held. I’d like to congratulate Helen Folkmann, Zohreh Saher, and Bill Smale as new members of the board. They will be joining the returning members Jeff Papineau, Julie Lee, Michael Walesiak, Sam Power, Rachelle Rimmer, Charlotte Bourne, Daryl Richel, and myself for an exciting year.
