Please see document SC 04-10.07
Good evening Council,

Thank you again for your patience with the class that I have now finished taking. I found the class to be extremely valuable for my role and I am also proud to report that I received an A+ in the class!

The following is a list of things that I have been working on since last meeting:

1. Augustana - We posted the Augustana Transitions Coordinator position and received 3 solid applications. We will have conducted interviews by tonight’s meeting. Hopefully I will be able to add some good news verbally.

2. Provincial Election Strategy – We have continued to meet to discuss the upcoming provincial election. We have continued to discuss the coalition campaign, as well as separate plans for the SU that can hopefully compliment the coalition campaign, including a plan to purchase and distribute lawn signs.

3. Celebration – I have spent a lot of time working on the celebration over the past few weeks. I met with the President and Business Manager of NASA and they really liked the idea. They will be trying to help out with various costs of the event (in kind) as well as potential contributing financially to the overall costs of the event. More on this to come. The sponsorship package has been completed and our sponsorship coordinator is working hard to obtain positive feedback from companies. I will report more on this as the money roles in (hopefully!). I have two speakers and one band confirmed. They are Chancellor Eric Newell, Dr. Margaret-Anne Armour, and Joel Kroeker respectively. The President has also expressed interest in giving the welcome address. I hope to update you more on this soon. I am also going to start putting out a call for volunteers, so if you are interested in helping out in any way with this event, please let me know.

4. Mealcard expansion – The meal card expansion is finalized and awaiting Council’s approval, which will hopefully come today. If it is approved, the meal card will be expanded to 8 new locations including RATT, Powerplant, L’Express, Cramdunk, Subway, Marco’s Famous, Edo Japan, and Funky Pickle. We have installers tentatively booked for October 12 and we hope to be fully operational by October 18th at the latest.

5. Other meetings/events:
   - Executive and Service Director lunch. This is an ongoing thing that will hopefully facilitate communication between the Exec and the Services. I look forward to our next lunch.
   - We interviewed 4 candidates for the EPIO position.
• Meeting with Sheldon Smart from VOTE! Society to discuss the municipal and provincial elections.
• SU and NASA joint executive meeting. An initial meeting to meet each other and ask some questions.
• Lobby meeting with Minister of Justice Dave Hancock to discuss the parental contribution requirement among other things.
• Meeting with Karen Ross to discuss a number of things.

That is all for now.
Council:

Since it’s only been just over a week since I wrote my last report (yep - I’m trying to make it into the main agenda package this time), I don’t have a ton to report. In any case, though, here’s what I’ve been up to:

Students’ Union Undergraduate Survey 2004

This is still a major activity for me, but everything is coming along well. I submitted the ethics proposal today after spending copious amounts of time ensuring all our bases are covered. I’ve been working with Dan and Duncan on a cost-sharing model and on scripts for contacting instructors and explaining the survey in classes. I also e-mailed the five academic-related U of A units who are asking questions on the survey with requests for financial contributions, so we’ll see how that all goes.

Academic Survey

I have been reading Making the Grade: A Survey of Student Opinion, which was produced by the Vice-President (Academic) and his University Affairs Board in 1994-95. I also had a good few hours of brainstorming issues and potential questions for the survey, and trying to get a sense of the ultimate purpose of this project and what the scope should be.

Hiring for University Policy and Information Officer (UPIO) position

I had intended the new UPIO to begin work this week, but I decided to extend the deadline until August 20. This position is now scheduled to begin September 1, granted a suitable candidate is found.

GFC by-elections

I will be communicating often with the Chief Returning Officer for the next month to discuss plans for advertising the availability of vacant GFC seats and for ensuring the student seat from Augustana Faculty is filled as well.

Meetings

- GFC Committee on the Learning Environment subcommittee on the First Year Learning Experience Retreat. We discussed issues students at the U of A face which pertain to their experiences, core competencies students should develop early in their university experience and by the time they graduate, and ideal attributes of graduating students (i.e., the kinds of people we are trying to create). Although we didn’t quite establish a firm mandate for this committee, it was a day filled with great discussion.

- AAB. We brainstormed major issues students face, especially those pertaining to academics, to help me decide how to approach my academic survey. We also talked about students’ responsibilities to the U of A, their peers, their professors, the University, and themselves.

- SU Executive met with Non-Academic Staff Association (NASA) Executive to meet each other and get an idea of where we may have common goals.

What’s Next?

- Lunch with VP (Academic) of Grant MacEwan College Students’ Association
- GFC Facilities Development Committee - Samantha is going on a bus trip with other Committee members to Augustana Faculty in Camrose
- Faculty Association Retreat - Saturday, August 21
  Samantha has been working very hard to put together great sessions and presenters for about 20 Executive members of various Faculty Associations. Some sessions will deal with: How FAs are governed, goal-setting and planning, legislation (constitutions, bylaws), leadership training, advocacy, and working with volunteers and planning events.
- AAB - August 30 @ 5:30 pm Lower Level Meeting Room
- Transitions 2004 - I will be part of a panel for the international student orientation discussing students’ rights and responsibilities at the U of A.
- Orientation! Seeing as how this is my first year since 2000 not being a volunteer, I will certainly be making an effort to participate in whatever capacity I can, and I wouldn’t miss the President’s Address for the world!
- Meeting cute Law and Med guys and partying it up with the Brockster and the Boggster
- My 23rd birthday! I’m getting old...

Have a great Labour Day weekend!

Trivia: Why is it called "Labour Day?"

Report to Students’ Council
August 24th

CAUS – Provincial Election
As I mentioned verbally at the last Council meeting, the coalition has finalized its advertising plan for the provincial election. We’ll be focusing on television advertising on the Edmonton and Calgary Global, CTV, and A-Channel affiliates for a two-week period. We will also be buying radio advertising on 630 CHED in Edmonton, and QR77 in Calgary. Additionally, we will be producing posters and brochures as part of the campaign.

Senate
We’re continuing to develop the proposed terms of reference for the Task Force on Student Experience. Heike Juergens and I have a meeting with Chancellor Newell on the 31st to update him on our progress. We’re hoping to get approval at the September plenary meeting.

Student-for-a-Day
Ariana and I continue to work on plans for the Student-for-a-Day event. We’ll be meeting with Juliana to come up with a design and a logo, and will be working on sending out invitations in the near future.

External Affairs Board
We had a meeting scheduled on the 12th, which turned into a discussion period as we failed to reach quorum. We discussed the elections some more, and I updated them on CAUS activities.

Municipal Election
Jordan and I met with Sheldon Smart from the Vote! Society to discuss how we can become involved with their Mayoral forum. It’s being held on September 30th at the Tin Palace. We’ll be a sponsor of the forum, and will be aiding in recruiting audience members. We’ve also discussed the idea of holding a “Democracy is Sexy” after-party at the Power Plant.

Advocacy Department
We had an advocacy department meeting Tuesday morning – Jordan, Erin, Mike, and myself – where we discussed the EPIO position, the newly-created Campus Campaigns Coordinator position (which is now posted), as well as plans for the upcoming municipal and provincial elections, and activities to do in conjunction with the September survey. We’re looking to hold weekly meetings for the remainder of the year.
Meeting with the U of C SU
CAUS Executive Director Duncan Wojtaszek and I went down to Calgary on Wednesday the 18th to meet with the U of C regarding the provincial election campaign. We met with Mike Bosch (VP External), Shaun Fluker (Policy Analyst), and Bev Hill (Communications Director), and discussed the coalition plans for the election, and how our respective organizations (U of C SU and U of A SU, along with CAUS) could help compliment that campaign. We had a very productive discussion, and came up with some good ideas for events to run this fall. And I got some sun sitting on the patio at The Den.

Meeting with Minister Dave Hancock
Jordan and I had a meeting with the Hon. Dave Hancock. This meeting stemmed from our discussion of student aid at his Pancake Breakfast last month. We discussed the parental contribution requirement, and provided recommendations for improvement.

Gary Wicentowich Is a Stone-Cold Pimp

BOG Rep Report to Council – August 24, 2004

Apologies for my absence from Council. Having finished my summer job at Hansma & Bristow, I am spending a week’s vacation on a road trip to Washington State University and relaxing in Vancouver.

First Things First

I went to the Attic last Friday to dance like one bad mother… shut your mouth. What do I find but Councilor Wicentowich dancing it up with some thirteen girls, a few of which may have been his lovely girlfriend. Gentlemen: takes notes. I taught him everything he knows.

On to business…

Business

1) I arranged a meeting for myself and Jordan with some senior level bureaucrats in the Alberta Progressive Conservative Party, and met with Jordan, Alex, Erin and Mike to discuss it. The advocacy department has done a great job preparing some materials, and we hopefully will be meeting shortly.

2) As per an election promise, I want to hold a consultation forum at the Fac. My first consultation forum on main campus last summer ended up being a three-hour dinner date with then-VPSL Jadene Mah, so I can only hope that this will be equally successful. I’ve chatted with former Fac councilor Zita Dubé to help me out with this, to avoid having it be a waste of my time and, frankly, a waste of their time. (bonus points to whoever gets that reference)

3) I would like the University to study the potential benefits and detriments of a trimester system, and I hope to be putting forward a motion to that effect at GFC in September. I’ve contacted VP Academic and Provost Carl Amrhein about the idea, and hope to speak with him further next month.

4) Organized the 2nd Annual Council Camping Trip over the August long weekend. We went to Lacombe, burned the Constitution, and generally had a good time. I maintain that it’s a good opportunity for new councilors to get to know each other and talk with old hacks, and hope that it is continued in future years (preferably as part of a Council retreat). I had the chance to meet and chat with a student from Augustana, and would thus like to claim my 40 bucks of Councilor outreach budget.
5) Have been looking to replace what currently exists as the Councilor conflict-of-interest policy. What the University has in place is overkill, but when I have some time I’d like to adapt something for our needs. Have discussed this with Chris Jones, the most under-appreciated resource the SU ever had.

6) Working with Med Councilor Brock Debenham to look into ideas to build some bridges between our respective professional faculties. No man is an island, but Law and Med certainly are.

7) Attended the nomination meeting for the Riverview Progressive Conservative Constituency Association, hoping to lobby some MLAs (which explains why I was late for the last Council meeting). Sadly, it didn’t turn out to be a great lobbying opportunity, but I did have a chance to chat with the nominee Fred Horne (who will be teaching a class at the University) and eat a few burgers with The Reid.

8) Have been attending EAB meetings to discuss elections and similar fun stuff.

Coming Up

Volunteering for WOW and “Welcome to the U” where possible. My boards and committees start up again in September, so expect to hear more about that. Aside from that: second-year law, starting a part-time job at CaPS, fraternity stuff, debate stuff, and preparing to die playing something called “rugby”. What’s up.

Scotty doesn’t know,
