University Policy Committee

Hello Council:

Our last meeting was three-hours long. We:

• had a Governance 599 presentation by Chris Henderson which proved to be informative.
• dealt with the Bearscat Political Policy. It was good practice and helped us get used to the Political Policy process.
• briefly talked some more about our Committee goals.

At our next meeting, we are looking forward to presentations of UPC-relevant Executive goals. We also eagerly await the implementation plans for our existing mandated Political Policies.

As always, I am open to questions.

Prem Eruvbetine
WHEREAS the majority of undergraduate students at the University of Alberta are required to register for courses through the online University of Alberta registration system;

AND WHEREAS course registration is an aspect of student life that must be a clear and efficient process;

AND WHEREAS students have found BearTracks, the official registration system of the University of Alberta, to be insufficient since its implementation;

AND WHEREAS BearScat, a registration facilitator service provided by the Students’ Union, provides a large number of students with the functionality they require in a registration system such as a graphic interface and a waitlist notification system;

AND WHEREAS operating BearScat – a service for students – requires modest, but necessary, operational costs;

AND WHEREAS the University of Alberta has, in the past, indicated a willingness to provide support for BearScat;

BE IT RESOLVED THAT the Students’ Union will lobby the University to alter BearTracks so that it will have features including, but not limited to, a graphic interface and a waitlist notification system.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED THAT, until BearTracks includes the above features and attains a level of functionality comparable to that of BearScat, the Students’ Union will continue to advocate for support of BearScat.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED THAT support of BearScat will not burden students or the Students’ Union.
COURNOYER MOVES THAT Students' Council adopt a political policy based on the following principles:

Students have found BearTracks, the official registration system of the University of Alberta, to be insufficient since its implementation. Therefore, the Students' Union will lobby the University to alter BearTracks so that it will include features such as a graphic interface and waitlist alerts. Otherwise, the Students' Union will continue to advocate for support of BearScat until such time as BearTracks has a level of functionality comparable to that of BearScat. Support of BearScat will not burden students or the Students' Union.
Hello Council:

Mayor Steven Mandel & City Councilors
Office of the City Clerk
3rd Floor City Hall
1 Sir Winston Churchill Square
Edmonton, Alberta T5J 2R7

Dear Mr. Mayor & Councilors,

Allow me first to thank you for showing leadership in considering the question of enabling secondary suite bylaw amendments and for allowing my presentation at the public hearing on June 13.

Modifying residential zoning bylaws to reflect actual practice, and enabling the creation of additional suites, is an important first step to address the housing crisis facing Edmontonians and students at the University of Alberta in particular. The executive committee heard unambiguously from community groups present at the public forum that proactive change is needed, and that it must be expedited.

The committee’s apparent preference for starting with new construction means that students living in existing suites, and those who need housing closer to campus, will have to wait to see their needs addressed. We understand your desire to evaluate impacts and uptake but renters, and among them our members in particular, need bold leadership from you now.

University of Alberta students can be found living across the City of Edmonton, but the majority live in areas proximate to the main campus. In addition, public transit service is already available in these mature areas, which would reduce the need for tenants to own a vehicle and would alleviate some traffic and parking impact concerns.

This fall, roughly 4,000 undergraduate first-year and transfer students from elsewhere will move to Edmonton to attend the University of Alberta. This in-migration will drastically worsen an already critical housing shortage. Many of these students will struggle to find a home, and a portion will simply have nowhere to live.

It is further imperative that suites in mature neighborhoods be permitted immediately so they can be brought up to fire and building codes. Current illegal suites can pose a significant health and safety hazard to tenants. With an apartment vacancy rate of 0.2% last fall in the University area, many affected students are afraid to address these hazards because there few alternative housing options.

I encourage this council to break for the election having addressed this issue in a decisive manner. Thank-you for hearing students’ concerns, and I look forward to seeing bold action to increase supply and improve safety.

Sincerely,

Steven Dollansky
Vice President (External)

Budget reforms
Have asked for each department to submit a short, concise report for BFC to review that outlines departmental goals, quantitative performance measures, and necessary resources. This should make it easier to ensure that each dollar that we give out is done in the best way for students’ benefit. I still have to meet with the service directors and marketing department to explain all of this.

May Profit and Loss statements
They are in. Due to some timing issues the original numbers made it look like we were doing about $140,000 better than budget, and as much as I’d like to take credit for that, I had accounting rectify some of those timing issues to better reflect reality, which is much closer to dead on budget.

Juicy product line
Has been slightly expanded with the addition of an iced drink machine, which can adapt to serve fruity or coffee type drinks. That should be installed very shortly. That cost around $1100.

The Edge
I thought I might be able to get out of going to any conferences at all, but got roped into this one in Halifax July 13-19. It should be a good opportunity to network with other financial executives to discuss operational endeavors, recent projects around the country, and brag to them about how sweet the UASU is. President Janz and VP Samuel will be attending as well.

Mumps
Chris Le and I were briefed about the possible need for space for vaccinations if mumps were ever to break out on campus by representatives from the University. We have committed to help to the best of our abilities by allowing the use of Horowitz lobby or Dinwoodie much like we did in the highly successful Meningitis vaccination a few years back.

Until next time,
Eamonn Gamble
Hello Council,

It’s good to be back in the office after being away on a conference. I’ve spent a lot of time catching up on different things. If you have questions, let me know!

- COCA Conference: This was an entertaining conference that was focused on campus programming, especially music. The report to Council is coming shortly.

- Campus Food Bank (CFB) Policies: I met with Justin Kehoe, the Chair of the CFB Board of Directors, and Madeline Bachmann, the CFB Executive Director, to talk about the policies surrounding the budget process and fund allocation. Madeline hopes to have the policies ready by the end of the summer. As a Director of the CFB, I want to help put in appropriate measures to ensure that students are being served properly and in a transparent manner.

- Lunch with the Office of the Dean of Students: The Exec met with Dr. Bill Connor, Cheryl Luchkow, and Jim Bohun. Our offices have a good working relationship, and we hope to continue doing good work through the Council of Student Affairs (COSA) and on topics such as bursaries and Student Group Services.

- WoW Theme: The WoW Planning Committee has decided on a theme! The SU’s Marketing Department is on board now and is developing visual concepts.

- Mumps Vaccination Meeting: Dr. Gordon McInroy and Kevin Friese spoke to the SU about potential vaccination sites if there were a mumps outbreak. Students generally have had one immunization; students would receive a second one in the case of a mumps outbreak.

- Lunch with Omer Yusuf: I met up with Omer, VPSL ’06-’07, and listened to his sage advice. Also, Omer is moving to Calgary to go to medical school there!
INTRODUCTION

The Student Life Committees (SLCs), which contain the Student Life Services Advisory Committee (SLSAC) and the Student Life Programming Committee (SLPC), work with Vice President (Student Life) and the Associate Vice President (Student Life) in various aspects of the VPSL portfolio. Omer Yusuf, VPSL ’06–’07, remarked that the SLC members who spent time together in the summer tended to be the most committed and involved volunteers through his term. Based on his recommendation, I decided that a retreat with the SLCs would help bring together the SLC members for the year and develop a strong team dynamic. This retreat would be especially useful because I deliberately chose a mix between new and returning SLC members.

My AVPSL, Michael Schwake, and I decided to have the Student Life Retreat in early June to help the team come together. We also wanted a quick retreat: Friday night till Saturday afternoon.

At the peak, we had ten SLC members out of sixteen show up. Justin Kehoe was a guest speaker who stayed through the retreat, while Pete Haggard stopped by for his presentation and left afterwards.

Everyone arrived slowly and the dinner took more time than scheduled, which strained the time schedule for the rest of the evening. Justin graciously helped with the clean-up after the dinner so we could start the events.

PERSONAL AND TEAM BUILDING ACTIVITIES

We used three activities to bring the group together. First, we did an envelope exercise where people filled out a sheet and sealed it in envelopes. The envelopes will be given back to them at a year-end event. This activity was useful because everyone took time to set out goals. We also did a diversity training activity where everyone stood in a circle and people entered the circle when a statement applied to them. This activity was useful in team building because we got to know each other at a more personal level. Finally, we did a test that revealed our personalities and categorized them based on colors. Everyone enjoyed this activity as it gave insight into our own personalities and others. There was a handout that described ways to work with the different personalities, which may be useful in the year when conflicts arise.
WEEK OF WELCOME (WoW) THEME DISCUSSION

The SLCs considered three themes. Michael moderated the discussion, while I listened and took notes. The discussion was lengthy and intense. After a quick break for everyone to cool off, I recapped the pros and cons, and the SLCs voted. I collected the votes from the people who were not present and tallied it with those at the retreat. I emphasized the necessity that the SLCs stay united on the theme and support it through to the end.

EVENING ACTIVITIES AND BREAKFAST

After the theme discussion, people dispersed for fun and games. In the morning, the men – Justin, Kevin Tok, Michael, and I – cooked a magnificent breakfast of eggs, bacon, and sausage for everyone. Everyone’s eggs were cooked the way they wanted them by their kitchen-savvy VPSL. It was so hearty that we didn’t even cook hamburgers or hotdogs for lunch.

GUEST SPEAKERS

Pete spoke about event planning and programming. He advised that we tie our events to the theme as well as possible, but don’t force it. He emphasized that the quality of the event was dependent on the effort of the volunteers. He opened the floor to questions, which filled up the rest of his talk.

Justin presented a global view of the SU and the role of the SLCs – particularly SLSAC – in the SU. He spoke of the history of the boards and committees that belonged to the VPSL and how they contributed to the VPSL. Michael and Justin prepared a handout that included an organizational chart, which the SLCs found helpful. The presentation was the shortest one that I’ve ever seen Justin give, so I was happy with the quality and efficiency of his talk. It was very well done.

FINAL THOUGHTS

The SL Retreat is a good idea. People get to spend time with each other without necessarily talking about SU Student Services or campus programming. Those relationships will be very helpful when they need to come together for events through the year.

A criticism of the SL Retreat is the level of familiarity already present between SLC members. They generally come from the same pool of SU volunteers, so a retreat for them to hang out is an unnecessary expense. I have, however, deliberately selected my SLCs to have a combination of new and returning volunteers. Since the SLCs meet for the entire year, it is beneficial to have them spend dedicated time together to build relationships.

I look forward to the good work that the SLCs will do this year!
