We would like to acknowledge that our University and our Students' Union are located on Treaty 6 Territory. We are grateful to be on Cree, Saulteaux, Métis, Blackfoot, and Nakota Sioux territory; specifically the ancestral space of the Papaschase Cree. These Nations are our family, friends, faculty, staff, students, and peers. As members of the University of Alberta Students' Union we honour the nation-to-nation treaty relationship. We aspire for our learning, research, teaching, and governance to acknowledge continuing colonial violence and respect Indigenous knowledges and traditions.

ORDER PAPER (SC 2015-09)

2015-09/1 SPEAKERS BUSINESS

2015-09/1a Announcements - The next meeting of the Students' Council will take place on Tuesday September 15, 2015 at 6.00pm in Council Chambers.

2015-09/2 PRESENTATIONS

2015-09/3 EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE REPORT

2015-09/4 BOARD AND COMMITTEE REPORT

2015-09/5 QUESTION PERIOD

2015-09/5a Councillor Christensen to Vice President Bondarchuk:
Could the Vice President (Operations and Finance) please provide an update to Students' Council regarding when the recent changes to Students' Union Bylaws, including the Gender Pronoun Elimination and other amendments, will be made publically available on the SU website?

Vice President Bondarchuk’s response:
Thanks to Councillor Christensen for the question! As many of you know, we do have a new wiki system where bylaws and policies are kept. This makes it easier to change them when edits come up, compared to the PDFs we used in previous years. It is a very new system, so we are still working out the best and easiest way to facilitate these changes after Students’ Council approves new bylaws and policies, and who is responsible for that. In the interim, all the bylaw changes we have approved since May 1st went live Wednesday morning, so they are now there for students to read and enjoy!

2015-09/6 BOARD AND COMMITTEE BUSINESS

2015-09/6a CHRISTENSEN/FLAMAN MOVE to amend Bylaw 2100 based on the advice of the C.R.O., recommendation of Bylaw Committee and in line the following first principles (Bill #6):
1. The C.R.O. selection committee shall be as unbiased and impartial as reasonably possible.

2. If the C.R.O. from the previous term seeks an additional term, they shall not be permitted to sit on or chair the hiring committee.

3. Since the D.R.O. is hired, in part, by the C.R.O. they shall not serve as interim chair of the selection committee to avoid perceived bias.

4. In these circumstances, chairpersonship of the C.R.O. selection committee shall be the outgoing speaker of students’ council.

2015-09/6b

CHRISTENSEN/DUAN MOVE to amend Bylaw 2200, Section 23 and Bylaw 2300, Section 17 based on the advice of the C.R.O., recommendation of Bylaw Committee and in line with the following first principles (Bill #7):

1. Some candidates run campaigns using their preferred name, rather than their legal name or a derivative thereof.

2. Measures shall be taken by the C.R.O. to confirm the preferred name is regularly used.

3. Bylaw shall be amended to address protocol for the C.R.O. regarding acceptance of preferred names for candidates.

2015-09/6c

CHRISTENSEN/DUAN MOVE to amend Bylaw 2200, Section 25 based on advice of the C.R.O., recommendation of Bylaw Committee and in line with the following first principles (Bill #8):

1. Daily meetings are often, but not always, valuable for candidates and the C.R.O. during executive elections.

2. During the campaign, the C.R.O. may not have agenda items for a given day’s meeting, therefore making that meeting unnecessary.

3. The C.R.O shall have freedom to cancel meetings, as they feel necessary.

4. The C.R.O. shall communicate changes to the meeting schedule in an effective and reasonable manner.

5. The C.R.O. shall provide notice of cancellation in advance of the meeting.

2015-09/6d

CHRISTENSEN/BONDARCHUK MOVE to amend Bylaw 2400, on the recommendation of Bylaw Committee, to maximize representation of vacant Students’ Council and GFC seats based on the following first principles (Bill #9):

1. Bylaw currently specifies the final date for Students’ Council and GFC vacancies to be included in the by-election nomination package.

2. The C.R.O. and bylaw committee believe this date is too early in the year to maximize student representation over the academic year.

3. Bylaw shall be amended to ensure more potentially vacant seats are filled through the by-election process.
CHRISTENSEN/DUAN MOVE to amend Bylaw 2200, Section 47 and Bylaw 2300, Section 38 based on the advice of the C.R.O, the recommendation of Bylaw Committee and the following first principles (Bill #10):

1. The complaints section of Bylaw currently has a loophole that limits the C.R.O.’s ability and mandate to investigate and rule on all contraventions of bylaws, rules and regulations when complaints are filed, due to time constraints laid out in bylaw.

2. Bylaw shall be amended to resolve this loophole with regard to the complaints section.

39 Penalties Available

1. Where a candidate, or volunteer has contravened a bylaw, rule, or regulation, regardless of the cause or the intent of the parties involved, and that contravention has provided an unfair advantage to a candidate, the C.R.O. shall assign a penalty that
   a. fully counter-balances any advantage gained; and
   b. where the contravention was intentional, penalizes the candidate or campaign manger who was or whose volunteer was guilty of the contravention.

2. Penalties available to the C.R.O. shall include
   a. a fine, to be counted against the candidate’s campaign expenses;
   b. the confiscation or destruction of campaign materials;
   c. limits, restrictions, and prohibitions on any type of campaign activities for any period of time up to the commencement of voting; and
   d. disqualification of the candidate.

3. The C.R.O. shall draft a schedule of fines and penalties as an appendix to the rules and regulations concerning this bylaw.

40 Disqualification

1. A candidate shall be disqualified where they are guilty of a contravention that
   a. cannot be counter-balanced by a lesser penalty;
   b. is malicious or substantially prejudicial to another candidate; or
   c. involves tampering with ballots, voting procedures, or counting procedures.

2. The C.R.O. shall be empowered to investigate and rule upon every contravention of this bylaw or any other bylaw, rule, or regulation related to the election.
1. Where a candidate, or volunteer has contravened a bylaw, rule, or regulation, regardless of the cause or the intent of the parties involved, and that contravention has provided an unfair advantage to a candidate, the C.R.O. shall assign a penalty that
   a. fully counter-balances any advantage gained; and

49 Disqualification

1. A candidate shall be disqualified where they are guilty of a contravention that
   a. cannot be counter-balanced by a lesser penalty;
   b. is malicious or substantially prejudicial to another candidate or slate; or
   c. involves tampering with ballots, voting procedures, or counting procedures.

2. Where the advantage gained by the “yes” side of a referendum or plebiscite due to a contravention cannot be fully counterbalanced by the penalties available to the C.R.O. as set out in Section 50, the C.R.O. shall cancel the referendum or plebiscite.

3. Where the advantage gained by the “no” side of a referendum or plebiscite due to a contravention cannot be fully counterbalanced by the penalties available to the C.R.O. as set out in Section 50, the C.R.O. shall counterbalance the advantage to the maximum extent possible, and may recommend to the D.I.E. Board that further disciplinary action be taken against the members guilty of the contravention under the Judiciary of the Students’ Union Bylaw, Bylaw 1500.

4. Where a side’s side manager is disqualified, that side shall select a new side manager.

5. The C.R.O. shall be empowered to investigate and rule upon every contravention of this bylaw or any other bylaw, rule, or regulation related to the election, plebiscite or referenda.

Re: Vice President Student Life Council Report

Hello Council,

My calendar is starting to make me cry a little, but it will be such a great time spent being productive and making memories for the year. Overall, I’m pretty excited! I hope you guys are ready for the school year! IT’S NEAR.

Advocacy
VP Hanwell and I had a meeting with Dean Everall (Dean of Students) this past Monday to follow up some of our conversations regarding drafting a mental health funding proposal for the new government. Dr. Everall was super supportive with our goals and said that she would do whatever possible to help us in our endeavours. We have agreed to collaboratively put together a proposal and have the SU sign up as an indication of student support for the continue funding. We will continue to follow up on this conversation once we have received the student outreach numbers from Dr. Everall this week!

President Khinda and I had a hectic week supporting Lister Hall Students’ Association. The appeal decision has dropped early August to suspend the LHSA, now we are in the progress of helping the LHSA team transition. It will be a tough process, but we are providing our best support.

Health and Services
Jason Murray from Counselling and Clinical Services had the opportunity to come to one of the COFA Member Services meeting this past Monday to talk about Positive U and how he would want to see faculties involved in distributing and sharing the news about the Mental Health Package. It was overall a good and productive meeting. We are hoping to bring Jason to present at council if possible some time in the future as well.

Events
The entire executive crew flew over to Vancouver for the annual Students’ Union Development Summit at UBC to meet with our counterparts from across Canada. I also had the opportunity to fly in 2 days early as a vacation to pay some old friends a visit. It was just a fun-filled week with lots of knowledge and information to soak in. I gotta say it feels good to be back home though, now we’re ready for the September rush. It’s starting to pick up...
SUDS 2015 Participants from Various Schools! We had guests from Harvard as well, super interesting.

Until next time,

Re: Report to Students’ Council

Hello Council!

With only a few weeks left until the start of the Fall term, things are getting busier and busier as I finish up my summer projects and get ready for the school year and the return of students!

Meeting with Councillor Knack

I was lucky enough to sit down with City of Edmonton Councillor Andrew Knack this week, to talk about washroom signage and some of my goals for the year around creating alternatives to gendered spaces. It was a fantastic meeting, and Councillor Knack was very interested in what we are doing not only with washroom advocacy, but also with student governance projects in general. He let me know that City Council unanimously passed a motion to include ungendered washrooms in all city facilities, and to sign them appropriately. He also put me in touch with a spokesperson for the washroom movement, and hopefully I can meet with her in the near future and move forward on the plans to lobby the provincial government for additions to the building code requiring single unit ungendered washrooms in all buildings going forward.

Political Policy on Gender

I was in Vancouver last week, and have been busy with Week of Welcome prep, so I have not had a chance to create the full text of the gender policy, or first principles of a safe spaces policy. These will be coming to a future Council meeting.

Social and Environmental Responsibility Committee

This year, SERC will be tackling food labeling, and will be starting research on what other schools do soon. The hope is to incorporate labeling standards into our businesses, by focusing on things like the amount of water that goes into creating food product, and the labour put into growing ingredients.

Student Union Development Summit

Last week, the rest of the Executive team and I headed to Vancouver for SUDS, an annual conference put on by UBC’s AMS for student executives across Canada (and this year, Cornell and Harvard too!). I had an absolute blast, and loved attending the sessions and social events, and meeting a lot of interesting people throughout the weekend! I have a breakdown of the different sessions below:

Professional Development: this was put on by Lev Buhkman, the CEO of Studentcare (the company we host our Health and Dental Plan through), and was a good first session for the conference. He talked about how to be successful in our roles over the year, and gave a lot of good advice around taking time for yourself and knowing your limits, while shooting for success.

The Art of Persuading Governments: Spencer Keys, a former lobbyist and employee of CASA (our federal lobby group), hosted this session and gave some great insight on the different ways to persuade government officials to get on board with your advocacy plans as students.

Club House: UBC AMS’s VP Student Life-equivalent facilitated this, and we got a chance to see how everyone’s governance structures looked. I should point out that we are still the only student association (present) with a research and advocacy department.

Vote PopUp: Samara, a non-profit, non-partisan organization dedicated to engaging voters walked us through their pop-up voting project. They also had some good advice on connecting voting to potential voters as something personal and unique to each person; not asking people to vote because it’s their right or responsibility, but asking them “why are you voting?”

Elections Canada: a representative from Elections Canada ran through the changes to the election process after the Fair Elections Act, including mail-in ballots, choosing which riding to vote in (important for students who live in residence or outside Edmonton), and advance polling.

Sustainability: The manager of their Sustain SU-equivalent facilitated a discussion around how sustainability as a concept had changed over time, and how to be effective in a post-sustainable world. I loved this session, because I personally have found sustainability turning into an increasingly buzzy word, and people will sometimes only practice it to be trendy, which can be classist (ask VP Hanwell about his Honours thesis on this sometime – you won’t be disappointed). We talked about how to combat this and how to reconcile the differences social, environmental, and economic systems have under the growing umbrella of sustainability, and how to view issues in a context that accounts for both environmental and ethical/social factors.

Digital Marketing: AntiSocial Solutions, a media company for businesses on the internet, hosted this session about viral content, making the best marketing campaign, and reaching out to students in unique ways. It was definitely valuable, as they gave some advice that is counter to what you may think of as classic media, and is counter-intuitively genius.

Other Thoughts: Last week was honestly one of the best weeks I’ve had so far in this job. I loved getting to meet other executives, see how different schools operate, attend sessions, party hard and responsibly, and above all, get to spend time with my team. There was so much to take away from the conference for so many reasons, but above all the message I got from the week was teamwork, and what can be accomplished when people work together.

Thanks for reading through, and have a wonderful week!

Re: VPA Report 8

Dear Council,

If you listen closely enough, you can hear it on the horizon. The students returning to campus to get re-oriented with their classes and buildings, the student groups hustling to get things in order for Week of Welcome and Clubs Fair, the line-ups for our UPasses growing every day, the piggy banks being broken to pay for residence, food, and tuition fees. It’s all there, Google Calendar tells me.

September is nearly upon us.

Here is a report on my duties to date:

1. Students’ Union Development Summit (SUDS) 2015

I arrived at SUDS a bit tardy, as I had a final I was unable to defer the first morning of the conference. The sessions were enjoyable, and it was super interesting to see the differences between exec teams at different SUs. In particular, I learned a lot about open educational resources and social media usage, and really enjoyed participating in the conference with the other UASU Execs. If you’d like any notes from the sessions I attended, let me know!

2. Teaching Tenure Stream

I met with Dr. Roger Epp, who was the previous Deputy Provost and was involved in discussions around a teaching tenure stream at our campus. There were two major points of contention for developing this: the stream can not implicitly state that, as these instructors focus less on research, other instructors are off the hook and able to neglect their teaching duties for more focus on research, or if it would disrupt the link between the production and distribution of knowledge. The other point was if professors should be allowed to float from one stream to another during their careers, or if they were locked in long-term one way or another.

I’m really glad to understand some of the concerns from administration and academic staff around this issue, and it will help me shape how I present this to others in the future.

3. University Standing Committees

No University standing committees met over the past two weeks, though I thoroughly enjoyed the opportunity to speak to incoming instructors at New Professor Orientation earlier this month. I covered aspects like student engagement and fostering student attributes, and found the rest of the day to be very enjoyable as well. I’ll be debriefing the day with the Centre for Teaching and Learning tomorrow at our Advisory Committee meeting as well.
4. General Faculties Council

No GFC meetings took place recently, though I’m coordinating a session between the University’s Governance office and GFC Student Caucus for members to learn more about how governance works at the U of A and how to be an effective student representative.

5. Council of Faculty Associations (Member Services and Advocacy Working Groups, AFSA)

COFA Member Services Working Group met last week, where we discussed our goals for the upcoming year alongside what’s in the works around mental health programming this year. We also had a presentation from Jason Murray, a clinical psychologist with Counselling and Clinical Services, around a Positive U campaign to promote student resiliency and wellness, which I believe FAs can play a role in.

Advocacy Working Group also met shortly prior to our Council meeting today, so I'll provide an oral update on how it went.

Finally, AFSA restructure has been going very well. We're issuing the second survey to Arts students around specific changes to AFSA Bylaws later this week. The more major changes include adding a President, Council and judicial body; abolishing consensus as a requirement for decision making; and clarifying the role of the FADRO alongside elections timelines.

6. Governance Review Task Force

We had the first meeting of the Governance Review Task Force last week, where we discussed what our rough timeline was going to be for the year and where we may need research support in terms of what other University SU's do.

The rough timeline will be reviewing previous reports such as the 2005 review of Students’ Council and the 2014 Students’ Council Engagement Task Force report, and examining academic literature around student governance. Following that, we’ll need to identify both the unique qualities of governance at the U of A, alongside the challenges faced by students at our campuses. Finally, we’ll propose recommendations to Council when all is said and done.

7. Discover Governance Surveys

Discover Governance conducted surveys with members new to a Faculty Association and General Faculties Council, and they produced a few recommendations that I agreed with. They’re definitely going to help shape how we use GFC Student Caucus and COFA moving forward, and engage with student representatives across campus. The major concerns for GFC representatives were understanding how to be an effective student advocate and understanding University governance. On the FA side, there were concerns about member engagement, though those balanced by how FAs appreciated the ability to make a meaningful impact in their Faculties and for their members.

I am really excited to have some concrete data around how student representatives operate across campus, to see how the SU can best support students in their diverse efforts.
Thanks so much for your time, and looking forward to the next report.

All the best,
Fahim Rahman

3) It is not always necessary for administrations to require students to disclose their gender and/or biological sex outside of medical reasons.
4) Students who do not identify within the male-female gender binary are denied access to gendered spaces on campus.
5) Transgender students may feel misgendered or unsafe in gendered spaces on campus.
6) Gender non-binary students are excluded from important University documents such as the Code of Student Behaviour when students are referred to as "he or she."
7) Existing alternatives to gendered spaces on campus do not have appropriate signage to address their inclusivity.
8) Students face barriers to obtaining non-binary living conditions in housing and residence.
