LARSEN/BROPHY MOVE to approve Bill #3 and amend Bylaw 2200 and 2300, on the recommendation of Bylaw Committee, to implement Universal Resources and Labors.

First Principles:
1. Current Bylaws on universal resources are vague which allows for campaigns to gain undue and unaccountable advantages during the elections process.

2016-06/7d  PACHES MOVES to appoint two members of council to the Myer Horowitz Design Committee

2016-06/8  GENERAL ORDERS

2016-06/8a  DEJONG/GHOSSEIN MOVE, upon recommendation of Policy Committee, to approve the Sexual Violence Policy in first reading based on the following first principles:

1. Sexual violence impact University of Alberta students.
2. People of all demographics are at risk of sexual violence.
3. On a national average, some demographics experience disproportionately high rates of sexual violence. These groups include women, LGBTQ people, people of colour, Indigenous people, immigrants and newcomers to Canada, and people with disabilities.
4. Demographics who experience higher rates of sexual violence often encounter unwanted sexual attention while on University property, such as at University gym facilities and residences.
5. Research shows that the majority of Canadians do not have a clear understanding of sexual consent.
6. Alcohol consumption is often used as an illegitimate excuse to justify acts of sexual violence.
7. Sexual violence can have severe mental, emotional, and physical impacts on survivors and their communities.
8. Contemporary societies accept myths and stereotypes about sexual violence. Furthermore, common attitudes, norms, and practices often tolerate, normalize, excuse, or condone sexual violence.
9. Students are primary stakeholders in the prevention of campus sexual violence and must be adequately consulted when the University makes decisions on sexual violence prevention and process management.
10. Information on how to report instances of sexual violence should be more readily available.
11. Not all survivors choose to report an instance of sexual violence or move forward with any sort of formal process. The way a survivor chooses to proceed is at their discretion, and a variety of supports should be available to them regardless of their decision.

Sexual Violence Policy First Principles - Definitions

Sexual Violence: any sexual act, attempt to obtain a sexual act, unwanted sexual comments or advances, or acts to traffic, or otherwise directed, against a person’s sexuality using coercion, by any person regardless of their relationship to the victim, in any setting, including but not limited to home and work. (United Nations World Health Organization: http://www.who.int/violence_injury_prevention/violence/global_campaign/en/chap6.pdf)

Sexual Assault: any form of sexual contact without voluntary consent.

• Kissing, fondling, vaginal or anal penetration, and oral sexual contact are all examples of sexual assault if they take place without voluntary consent.

• Consent obtained through pressure, coercion, force, or threats of force is not voluntary consent. (University of Alberta Sexual Assault Centre, adapted from the Criminal Code of Canada: https://www.ualberta.ca/current-students/sexual-assault-centre/understanding-sexual-assault)

Sexual Harassment: Sexual harassment is defined as any unwanted sexual communication or attention that is offensive, intimidating, or humiliating, whether in verbal, written, or visual form (University of Alberta Sexual Assault Centre, adapted from the Alberta Human Rights and Citizenship Commission: https://www.ualberta.ca/current-students/sexual-assault-centre/understanding-sexual-assault)

Sexual Consent: A voluntary agreement of the complainant to engage in the sexual activity in question (Section 273.1) The criminal code outlines five specific situations in which consent is not valid. Consent is not valid if:

• It is given by someone else;

• The person is incapable of consenting (i.e. unconscious, sleeping, drunk, or stoned);

• It is an abuse of power, trust, or authority;

• The person does not say yes, says no, or through words or behaviour implies no;

• The person changes their mind. (University of Alberta Sexual Assault Centre, adapted from the Criminal Code of Canada: https://www.ualberta.ca/current-students/sexual-assault-centre/understanding-sexual-assault)

Hello Council,

Some of you may have noticed that I was not present at the past few meetings, which is quite uncharacteristic of me since I had 100% attendance last year. I love council because it is one of the few places where people can come together and make changes that affect our fellow students. I am extremely sad to announce that I will be resigning because I can no longer effectively participate in the process.

Many students voted for me in the past year hoping that I will be able to represent them at council. I hope that my resignation will not impact how students' voices will be heard. One of the best ways is for all of you, my fellow councilors, to heavily engage our constituents and share with students the importance of the student voice.

Thank you all for this wonderful time on council!

Kevin Wang
I hereby resign from the UASU Finance Committee as I will be applying for SU Awards and it would be a conflict of interest if I were to remain on this committee.

Re: Students’ Union Council Report #6

Hi Council,

I can’t believe we’re already past the halfway point of summer, and we all have less than ten months in our terms!

Here is an update on my duties:

1. Internal SU Projects

You should be seeing more messaging on social media from the Students’ Union’s accounts, particularly around Gov Week. I am also looking into how our website can be further refined to present information to students effectively.

2. University Advocacy

There was another meeting of the subcommittee exploring a stream for teaching tenure. This time we reviewed the language the U of A has around Faculty Service Officers (which could serve as a teaching stream category, but isn’t used like this across all Faculties here).

VP Banister and I met with the Provost, which went well. We outlined our focuses and priorities for the upcoming year, which includes experiential learning, the sexual assault report and residence life task force amongst other items.

3. CAUS & CASA & ESA

CAUS had its second Policy meeting of the year where we outlined next steps on our Student Financial Aid. I’ll make a few edits to some of our policies, such as loan remission and tax credits for students. Tomorrow the full executive will head to Lethbridge for our first All-Exec CAUS meeting.

CASA’s Policy committee also met and outlined a few CASA policies from 2013 – 14 that need to be renewed or discarded. We’re also looking forward to CASA’s Policy and Strategy Conference in Winnipeg next week, where priorities for the year will be determined. Right now it looks like economic barriers to PSE and student wellbeing will certainly be focuses.

4. Student Life

VP Ghossein and I are still awaiting the next meeting of the Residence Life Task Force, as travel seems to be preventing us from meeting in July.

5. Council
One on ones with each of you as Councilors have been going smoothly so far. I have really enjoyed getting to know your interests inside and outside of Council, and I look forward to the rest of the one on ones.

I attended Bylaw Committee last week which had a very thoughtful discussion around some of our Elections rules and the second readings for the Faculty Associations’ autonomy Bill coming forward. I attended CAC as well where a few items relating to Council were discussed.

6. Presence & Relevancy

The Executive received training from CSJR on doing a podcast-styled interview with external stakeholders. We also had interviews with the Gateway on some of our goals for the year as well as a brief overview of our portfolios and roles with the SU.

VP Ghossein and I attended the Premier’s breakfast this week as well. Finally, I gave a presentation to a cohort of Chinese administrators on the role our Students’ Union plays on campus here. They were impressed by our scope and resources, and had a lot of questions for me!

That’s all from me, and looking forward to the next report.

Re: Report to Students’ Council

Why Hello There Council,

I swear every time I write one of these things it seems like I just finished the last. Summer flies by farrrrrrr too fast and its scary. Am I getting old? Am I having too much fun? I feel like it may be a mix of both. Anyways, time to update. Tbh, not a ton has happened in the last couple weeks due to a mini vacation I took, but here we go!

Executive Coordinator Interviews

We wrapped up the interview process for our new executive coordinator last Tuesday. The hiring team, in consultation with all executives, has selected a candidate and we have sent them an offer. Once they hopefully accept the offer, we can announce our newest staff member!

Edwin Parr Composite High School Visit

Also taking place last Tuesday, I was lucky enough to host a high school tour. This was a super unique and exciting experience for me. My high school social teacher at Edwin Parr Composite High School in Athabasca reached out to me and asked if I would host them at the university. He was a two-term councilor during his education degree. With the help of the UAlberta Ambassadors, we toured his class around the school and the Students’ Union Building, showing these rural students that university is much more than large lectures and exams. The tour was a great success, with positive feedback from each student and even more from my previous teacher. I swear, he was more excited to be back on campus than the students were!

The Gateway Interview

Just today I had a short interview with The Gateway for their first magazine of the year. It was a fairly straightforward interview outlining my goals and what students can reach out to me for. It finished with any financial advice I may have for students, cause I guess that’s a thing with VP Finance. So kids, have a plan, don’t eat out all the time, get deal cards and always pre-game.
Stampede & Pemberton

Since my last report I took some time to myself. Two weeks ago was Stampede, one of my favorite weekends of the year. There’s nothing better for this small town boy than huge party tents full of country music and two-stepping a plenty.

Today is my first day back at work after returning from the wonderful world of Pemberton Music Festival. This year’s four-day festival was one for the books. I went with an awesome group of around 30 that formed a huge mega camp miraculously in the chaos that was getting camping spots. All the shows were next level, with standouts like The Killers, Wiz Khalifa, Bass Nectar, Flosstradamus and J Cole. (Yeah I like rap and electronic lolol). Highly recommend Pemby for anyone looking for a music festival; it’s a great balance of all kinds of music set in the insanely scenic Pemberton valley.

Until next time, and don’t forget about my off council Tuesday from 4:30-5:30PM office hours!

Cheers,

Robyn Paches
Dear Council,

I hope you are all having a wonderful July! I have been out of town quite a bit since our last Students’ Council meeting. However, here is a report of my duties to date:

1. GovWeek

   There is a little less than two weeks to apply to facilitate a session or register an event with GovWeek! GovWeek planning and advertising has taken up the majority of my desk time in the last few weeks. I am thrilled to announce we have secured Mayor Don Iveson to be the GovWeek key note speaker on September 23rd! If you or anyone you know of is interested in applying to host programming please encourage them to submit an application by August 5th at www.govweek.ca.

GovWeek Advisory Group (GWAG)

   GWAG has met since our last Students’ Council meeting. At the meeting we brainstormed stakeholders to approach about getting involved, as well I asked for their opinion on planning the Students’ Union run speaker series on Diversity in Governance. Those include a panel on mature students, international students, aboriginal students, women, and students in professional programs. I am thrilled that the Native Studies Students Association will be also hosting a speaker series about indigenous students in governance, and we will be working collaboratively on that panel. If you are interested in being involved with any of the Diversity in Governance sessions, please let me know!

2. Meetings & Committees

COFA

   COFA has not met since our last Council meeting, however I did send them the second readings of the Bylaw regarding Faculty Associations deviation from SU political policy. I will inform council of any feedback I received in my oral update.

Vacancies

   The Students’ Union is undertaking a project to make our Bylaws and Political Policies available in French. We are recruiting bilingual students to help with the translation process! Applicants can send a resume and cover letter by Monday July 25th to President Rahman at president@su.ualberta.ca. More details available https://www.jobkin.ca/search.htm?moreinfo=5094.

Provosts

I recently had my monthly meeting with Nat Kav the Vice- Provost (Programs) and Sarah Forgie the Vice- Provost (Learning Initiatives). At the meeting we discussed a future conference hosted at the University of Alberta on undergraduate interdisciplinary program options. They both were very enthusiastic about the idea and I am continuing to plan how to move forward. President Rahman and I also met with Provost Dew to go over some goals for the upcoming year. At the meeting we discussed the proposed Centre for Writers move and were told consultation would begin in September. At the meeting, Provost Dew also suggested creating monthly meetings with President Rahman and I to ensure healthy dialogue moving forward.

4. Other Exciting Endeavours

Pemberton

I have been traveling quite a bit lately and recently got back from the Pemberton Music Festival! It was a great little trip, unfortunately I have come down with a bit of a cold since but I hope to be fully recuperated by our Council Meeting!

Podcast Training

On July 8th, the executive and I did volunteer training at CJSR so we are able to use the equipment to tape our SU Podcast which is set to launch during GovWeek! It was a neat space and we all learned a lot about the CJSR studio.

Clue Hunt - Orientation

VP Ghossein, VP Sandarc, and I volunteered at the Orientation Clue Hunt on July 11th! It was fun to see the eager volunteers bonding over the event.

Lethbridge

From July 21-22 the entire Executive will be driving out to Lethbridge for our first CAUS all Exec meeting! We are excited to get together with our counterparts across Alberta and will be sure to provide updates in our oral report to Council.

Thank you for reading this report and I would be happy to answer any questions you may have.

Re: Vice President Student Life Council Report

Hi Council!

In case you missed it, the GovWeek applications are open for two more weeks so please encourage people who you would know are interested in hosting an event or facilitating a session to apply!
Go to www.govweek.ca to find out more about our first week-long event dedicated to the celebration of all things governance!

As I’m writing this report, I am on my way to Lethbridge with the rest of the exec for a CAUS meeting. I am looking forward to connecting with my counterparts from other Students’ Associations/Unions and sharing my goals with them.

This report will not be very heavy as I took a few vacation days from July 13th to July 18th; I went to the Pemberton music festival and it was a lot of fun, but I was definitely ready to come back to work after a 14-hour long drive back!

On Tuesday the 19th, President Rahman and I attended the Premier’s Pancake Breakfast in the Legislature Grounds. Although the Premier was not present, we found a few familiar faces, one of them being the Minister of Advanced Education, Marlin Schmidt.
ADVOCACY

Lister Representatives

We have one position left to fill. We have received two additional applications for the positions so Rebecca Taylor (Discover Governance Manager) and I are going to be conducting interviews in the upcoming week.

COMMITTEES AND BOARDS

Policy Committee

In our last policy meeting, the committee worked on reviewing and modifying the first principles for the sexual violence policy that councilor Dejong brought forward. The committee unanimously recommended that students’ council approve the motion pertaining to these first principles in the upcoming council meeting.

I would like to thank councilor Dejong for her excellent work on this policy!

Just a reminder that my office hours are on Fridays from 12pm to 1 pm so please feel free to drop by SUB 2-900! If that time does not work for you, shoot me an e-mail at vp.studentlife@su.ualberta.ca and we’ll set up a meeting!

Thank you for taking the time to read my report and I can’t wait to see you all on Tuesday!
Office of the VICE PRESIDENT STUDENT LIFE

Re: Students Council

Council Report: Return to the Office

Hey All,

I hope you’ve been good these past couple weeks! After bouncing from province to province, city to city, I just got back from my hiatus/ mini vacation. (So this won’t be too long of a report.) But hopefully you’re ready to tune into the next report of the Vice-President (External)!

CAUS
Myself, along with the rest of the exec are currently in Lethbridge for the CAUS All-Exec Meeting. The All-Exec is a twice a year meeting where every executive (from all positions) from CAUS member schools meet to discuss their goals, and provide support for on another. On the VPX side of things we came together to finalize the discussion points we will prioritize and add onto our lobby document for the next year. The goals we have decided upon are: Mental Health Funding, Changes to Governance, Financial Changes and Student Employment. For Mental Health Funding we decided to push for sustainable and predictable per-student funding. Changes to Governance applies only to MacEwan University and Mount Royal as it is about increasing student representation as well as moving them into a different part of the PSLA. Financial Changes have to do with non-repayable grants and tuition models; and Student Employment is centered around changes being made to the STEP Program, as well as Work Integrated Learning opportunities.

CASA
I am also preparing to leave for Winnipeg for the CASA Policy and Strategy Conference later this week. In this meeting we will be setting our policy and advocacy priorities for the year. I am excited to be working with the other VPExternals and Presidents from across the country and will keep you updated on how it goes!

Welp! That’s all for today I hope that you all enjoyed the report, I look forward to filling y’all in next time!
Keep on rockin’ in the free world,
Mike Sandare

2016-05/5  OPEN FORUM

2016-05/6  QUESTION PERIOD

2016-05/6a  Councilor Farooq to Vice President Banister:

He asks for an update of GovWeek regarding student at large and faculty association applicants.
Vice President Banister’s Response:

She reports that currently she has received two applications and expects more will be coming in near the deadline. But she encourage people to apply earlier.

2016-05/6b Councilor Larson to Vice President Paches:

He asks about the process of updating SU’s website and any future plan for it.

Vice President Paches’ Response:

He reports that the Marketing department handles the update of the website and currently the staff is occupied by creating the handbook, but the website will be updated regularly to keep it up-to-date.

2016-05/6c Councilor Farooq to Vice President Banister:

He asks about COFA’s discussion regarding Faculty Association Political Policy Diversion and their response to it.

Vice President Banister’s Response:

She answers that most of the COFA is comfortable to the changes and is generally in support of it. They appreciate that they are being consulted.

2016-05/6d Councilor Angus to Vice President Banister:

He further inquires which member of COFA speaks against the proposal.

Vice President Banister’s Response:

She answers that Campus Saint-Jean speaks against the proposal.

2016-05/6e Governor Champagne to Vice President Banister:

He further inquires about the standpoint against the proposal.

Vice President Banister’s Response:

She elaborates that the president of AUFSJ thinks that all the student bodies should act collectively and concerns that this bylaw will compromise that. The FAs should not go against SU’s political policy because it has the best in mind for all students.
Bill #2 – Faculty Association Political Policy Diversion - First Principles

CHRISTENSEN/PROCHNAU MOVE to approve Bill #2, on the recommendation of Bylaw Committee, and amend Bylaw 8100 to allow faculty associations to deviate from political policy.

Councilor Christensen introduces the principles. Then the Council debates. Several councilors speak in support of the principles as it puts some process in place so that the Council has a mechanism to work on if problems arise. It also gives transparency to the process. Some of the councilor speaks against it because of its nature. They believe it is not in the best interest for the Council and students for FAs to work around political policies. FAs should abide by the decision of the majority. The process is not the best solution as they think there are better ways for the Council to engage their constituents.
