ESS Mission Statement

“To promote professional awareness among engineering students by encouraging a sense of unity and integrity, through the combined efforts of all engineers working together in both social and technical activities.”
2018/19 ESS FAMF

- Purpose
  - Allow the ESS to offer a wide range of events and services that aim to fulfill our mission

- Amount
  - Full-time students pay $10.00 per term.
  - Part-time students pay $0.00 per term.
  - The ESS shall release reimbursements for students who provide written notification of their intent to opt-out of the FAMF.

- Lifetime
  - Two year period beginning Fall 2019
  - Collected until Winter Term 2021, inclusive.
  - Expiry on August 31, 2021.
2018/19 FAMF Allocation

Current Allocation

- Intramural Sports Fund
- The Bridge
- Engineering Carnival
- Health & Wellness
- Spring Formal
- Engineering Public Good Fund
- Engineering Handbook
- GEER Week
- Discipline Clubs
- Conferences and Competitions
- Engineering Student Activities Fund
- Engineering Student Group Fund
Proposed FAMF Re-allocation

New Allocation

- Intramural Sports Fund
- The Bridge
- Engineering Carnival
- Health & Wellness
- Spring Formal
- Engineering Public Good Fund
- Engineering Handbook
- GEER Week
- Discipline Clubs
- Conferences and Competitions
- Engineering Student Activities Fund
- Engineering Student Group Fund

Allocation percentages:

- 5.0%
- 10.0%
- 15.0%
- 20.0%
- 25.0%
Why Reallocate?

- The Engineering Students’ Society believes it is imperative that the Faculty Association Membership Fee is reallocated to best serve students during COVID-19
  - Reduce funding for conference and competition travel and accommodations
  - Increase funding towards health and wellness events and services
  - Increase funding for engineering student groups experiencing economic hardship
  - Cut funding to services that can be delivered at zero cost in a virtual format
  - Cut funding for in-person events and services that are no longer feasible
  - Increase funding for virtual community building initiatives
Why Reallocate?

- In past, the ESS FAMF has been underutilized and/or was incorrectly allocated
  - FAMF allocations that were not used in the 2019/20 academic year
    - The Bridge
    - Spring Formal
    - Engineering Public Good Fund
    - Intramural Sports Fund
  - Each ESS Fund has a rollover equal to or greater than one year of funding

<td>Reallocate FAMF distributions to better serve students during remote delivery</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Whereas:</td>
<td>COVID-19 has impacted the Engineering Students’ Society’s ability to provide in-person services and events. Thus, the current FAMF allocations do not accurately represent the ESS’ plans or budget for the 2020/21 academic year. Additionally, funds allocated to conference and competition travel will not be distributed while travel is unsafe. Therefore, the funds can be better used by student groups and to provide health and wellness services.</td>

Engineering Student Group Fund

"Non-discipline club engineering student groups contribute to student life in the Faculty of Engineering and are worthy of financial support through the Faculty Association Membership Fee"

Reallocation Justification (no change)

- Student groups are expected to have reduced sponsorship and revenue due to COVID-19
- Anticipated increase in number of applications and decrease in funding amount per application
- More than full rollover from last year
“The Engineering Students’ Activities Fund (ESAF) is purposed to help engineering students attend seminars, conferences or sessions related to their engineering education”

Reallocation Justification (decrease)

- Has historically gone under-utilized
- The ESS will no longer be paying for travel and accommodation fees due to safety concerns
- Remote conferences and competitions are expected to have lower delegate fees
- More than full rollover from last year
Conferences and Competitions

To cover costs of sending students to engineering conferences and competitions, as well as host the annual University of Alberta Engineering Competition (UAEC)

Reallocation Justification (decrease)

- The ESS will no longer be paying for travel and accommodation fees due to safety concerns
- The UAEC will be hosted virtually at a reduced cost
Discipline Clubs

To be allocated to engineering discipline clubs on a per-capita basis

Reallocation Justification (increase)

- Expected to have reduced sponsorship and revenue due to COVID-19
- Not eligible for the Engineering Student Groups Fund
GEER Week

Reallocation Justification (increase)

- The entire Student Life budget has been cut and consolidated into GEER Week
- All philanthropic events have been included into GEER Week
- Student advocacy efforts to be included into GEER Week
- Providing events for free to reduce emphasis on revenue and increase focus on community building
- Year long event

To cover the costs of running GEER Week
Engineering Handbook

To cover the costs of printing engineering handbooks

Reallocation Justification (increase)

- Paid for in-part by sponsorship
Engineering Public Good Fund

“Student life in the Faculty of Engineering is driven by the entire undergraduate engineering population, and any student who believes they can better the day to day experience of their degree should have a process by which to realize their vision. The Engineering Public Good Fund (EPGF) is purposed to improve the quality of life of engineering students.”

Reallocation Justification (decrease)

- Has not been used once
- Full rollover from last year
- Unlikely that students will have access to campus for a public good project
Spring Formal

To cover the costs of Spring Formal

Reallocation Justification (increase)

- To replace the GEER Week Engineering Banquet
- Working with the Faculty of Engineering and Student Event Risk Management to host Spring Formal in-person in April 2021
Health and Wellness

Reallocation Justification (increase)

○ Health and Wellness events and services are preceded during COVID-19 and remote delivery

To cover the cost of health and wellness services
Engineering Carnival

To cover the costs of the Engineering Carnival

Reallocation Justification (decrease)

○ 2020 Engineering Carnival to be hosted in a virtual format with zero cost
The Bridge

Reallocation Justification (decrease)

- The Bridge to be published exclusively online with zero cost

To cover the printing and distribution of the Bridge publication
Intramural Sports Fund

Reallocation Justification (decrease)

- Has been used one (1) time in previous years
- The ESS will be providing socially distanced sporting events in conjunction with Campus and Community Recreation when possible
- Full rollover from last year

To distribute to engineering students for participation in intramural sports
FAMF Projections
Projection - Current Allocations

- Numbers projected using assumption of 4000 students enrolled
- Historically, the ESS has received on average $8.06/student
  - Lower than $10 due to co-op students, part-time students, and opt-outs.
